

The European Public Law Organization (EPLO)

announces the 2016 session of the:

“Academy of European Public Law”

22 August -11 September, 2016

Combine your Study with the Best of Greece:

Visit Athens, Sounion & a Greek Island, all-in-one summer session!

For the 22nd consecutive year the European Public Law Organization \(EPLO\) is launching the 2016 Academy of European Public Law (www.eploacademy.eu) which is carried out, between the months of August and September, each year, at the EPLO premises in Athens, Sounion and Spetses Island in Greece.

World-Class Academics & Up to Date Curricula from the most Prestigious Universities of the World

Founded in 1995, the Academy is the most historic and established education institution of the European Public Law Organization (EPLO). The Academy offers 3-week summer study sessions for those interested in furthering their knowledge on the philosophical backdrop of different European national public law systems, as well as on their commonalities and differences. Students may attend one session to earn a Certificate of Attendance in European Public Law, or, attend two consecutive summer sessions to obtain the Intensive International Master of Laws (I.I.L.L.M.) in European Public Law.

The General Course will be given this year by Prof. Gordon Anthony (Queen’s University Belfast) and Prof. Spyridon Vlachopoulos (National and Kapodistrian University of Athens), on the thematic: “The Law of the Public Interest”. Seminars will be provided by Prof. Stefano Maffei (University of Parma) on “European Human Rights Law”, Prof. Eleftheria Neframi (University of Luxemburg) on “Judicial Implementation of EU Law” and Prof. Constantinos Kombos (European University of Cyprus) on “European Public Law and EU Constitutional Principles”.

Why study at the Academy of European Public Law?

- 3 weeks of quality study and at the same time a visit to the Best of Greece: Athens, Sounion & Greek Island, all-in-one trip!
- Update yourself on the most recent curriculum on European Public Law
- Learn from world-class academics from the most prestigious universities of the world
- Attend a unique international conference, at the island of Spetses, and interact with renowned jurists, judges & law academics from all around the world
- Pursue a Master’s level studies (I.I.L.L.M) without compromising your personal or professional obligations
- Enjoy your stay at a place of spectacular heritage which combines sea, sun, and history

Eligible applicants to both programs should hold a graduate or postgraduate degree in law, or political science, European studies, international affairs and other related fields. In addition, eligible applicants should be proficient in English for academic purposes and have working knowledge of French or be proficient in French for academic purposes and have working knowledge of English.

For more information please visit the Academy website www.eploacademy.eu or contact us at: +30 211 311 0672, academy@eplo.eu